Claimant: Mrs K Holovina

Respondent: Altermeliora Limited

Heard at: Croydon on CVP On: 13 October 2025

Before: Employment Judge Wright

Representation

Claimant: In person

Respondent: Mr M Medushkin - director

JUDGMENT having been given orally on the 13 October 2025 and written reasons having been requested in accordance with Rule 60 of the Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure, the following reasons are provided:

REASONS

1. The contract between the claimant and the respondent (which gave a start date of 1 January 2023) contained a Governing Law clause, which conferred jurisdiction of the English and Welsh courts.
2. The claimant claims the sum of €7,216.76, representing four months' unpaid wages.
3. In correspondence, Mr Medushkin originally conceded the sum was due. He now takes the position that due to the claimant using a different surname and due to tax matters in Spain, he disputes the sum is due.
4. In those circumstances, where the respondent has conceded the sum was due to the claimant and that the more recent objection does not relate to the sum due, Judgment was granted in the claimant's favour for the sum of €7,216.76.
