³ The Parties note in particular that arrangements for democratic consent specified at Article 18 of the Windsor Framework may result in Articles 5 through 10, and other provisions of the Windsor Framework dependent on the same Articles for their application, ceasing to apply to the United Kingdom in accordance with the arrangements specified at Article 18.

or unjustified discrimination against the other Party or as a disguised restriction on trade.

2. Paragraph 1 means, with respect to a regional or state level of government, as the case may be, treatment no less favourable than that accorded by that regional or state level government, as the case may be, to like, directly competitive or substitutable goods of the Party of which it forms part.

Article 2.6
Treatment of Customs Duties

2. Each Party shall promptly publish on the internet all fees and charges it imposes in connection with importation or exportation, including any updates or changes to such fees and charges. Fees and charges shall not be applied until information on them, including the responsible authority and when and how payment is to be made, has been published, to the extent possible in the English language.
3. No Party shall require consular transactions, including related fees and other charges, in connection with the importation of any good of the other Party.

3. Each Party shall, as provided for in its laws and regulations, on the request of the person concerned and for reasons its customs authority considers valid, extend the time limit for duty-free temporary admission beyond the period initially fixed.

4. A Party may impose a condition for the duty-free temporary admission of goods referred to in paragraph 1, among others, on goods that:

 - (f) are admitted in no greater quantity than is reasonable for their intended use; and
 - (g) are otherwise admissible into the Party's territory under its laws.
5. If any condition that a Party imposes under paragraph 4 has not been fulfilled, the Party may apply the import duties and taxes and any other charge that would normally be owed on the good in addition to any other charges, penalties or actions provided for under its law.
