We normally pay your money into an account

Many banks and building societies will let you collect your money at the Post Office. We will tell you when we will make the first payment and how much it will be for. We will tell you if the amount we pay into the account is going to change.

Finding out how much we have paid into the account

You can check your payments on account statements. The statements may show your National Insurance (NI) number next to any payments we have made. If you think a payment is wrong, get in touch with the office that pays you straight away.

If we pay you too much money

We have the right to take back any money we pay that you are not entitled to. This may be because of the way the system works for payments into an account.

For example, you may give us some information, which means you are entitled to less money. Sometimes we may not be able to change the amount we have already paid you. This means we will have paid you money that you are not entitled to. We will contact you before we take back any money.

Your account details

Please tell us about the account you want to use on the next page:

- by giving us your account details you:
 - agree that we will pay you into an account, and
 - understand what we have told you above in the section If we pay you too much money
- if you are going to open an account, please tell us your account details as soon as you get them
- if you do not have an account, please contact us and we will give you more information
- you can use an account in your name, or a joint account
- you can use someone else's account if:
 - the terms and conditions of their account allow this,
 - they agree to let you use their account, and
 - you are sure they will use your money in the way you tell them
- you can use a credit union account. You must tell us the credit union's account details. Your credit union will be able to help you with this
- if you are an appointee or a legal representative acting on behalf of the claimant, the account should be in your name only.

Please tell us your account details below

It is very important you fill in all the boxes correctly, including the building society roll or reference number, if you have one. If you tell us the wrong account details your payment may be delayed or you may lose money.

You can find the account details on your chequebook or bank statements. If you do not know the account details, ask the bank or building society.

Please tell us the name of the account holder exactly as it is shown on the bank card or account statement.
