

Catchment Sensitive Farming

Working together for a healthy environment

Catchment Sensitive Farming Advice Request Form

Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF) offers advice and training to help farmers produce food in a way that protects their local water, air and soil.

To request advice from CSF, please complete this form and send it to your local CSF team at csfengland.org/contact

Applicant details

Contact name

Date you filled in the form

Address and postcode

Telephone number

Email

Farm business name

Single Business Identifier (SBI) number and/or County Parish Holding (CPH) number:

Tell us about your farm?

You must provide a description of your farm including its size and the type of enterprise.

Advice details

Why are you asking for advice?

Describe the current issues your farm business is facing related to water, air and soil.

Have you previously contacted CSF to request advice and/or support for a Capital Grant application?

Yes No

If yes, was this in the last 24 months?

Yes No

If yes, were you offered an advisory visit by CSF?

Yes No

If yes, did you receive a letter of support for a Capital Grant application (if yes, what date)?

Yes No

Date:

Have you been recommended to request advice from CSF by the Environment Agency?

Yes No

What advice would you like from CSF?

Tick all relevant options.

Soil and nutrient management (including slurry and manures)

Ammonia reduction

Farm and infrastructure machinery

Pesticide management

Water resources and flood mitigation

Agents' details

Only fill in this section if it is applicable.

Agent's name

Agent's email address

Agent's telephone number

Further information

Is there anything else it would be useful for us to know?

You could include descriptions and consider attaching relevant maps or photographs

For more information about the advice CSF can offer visit csfengland.org

To attend a free CSF event or speak to your local adviser at an agricultural show, see what's happening near you at csfengland.org/events

For more information about how we handle your data visit gov.uk