

When to use this form

Use this form to tell us when a beneficiary's interest in a qualifying interest in possession in a trust comes to an end during their lifetime.

Do not use this form to tell us if the ending of the qualifying interest in possession was due to the person's death (form IHT100b(death) or form IHT418 must be used if you're a trustee also acting as an executor of the death estate).

You'll need to refer to the IHT100b notes when completing this form.

Declaration

To the best of my/our knowledge and belief, the information I/we have given and the statements I/We have made in this account, the event form and the schedules attached (together called 'this account') are correct and complete.

I/We understand that I/we may be liable to prosecution if I/we deliberately conceal any information that affects the liability to Inheritance Tax arising on the chargeable event, or if I/we deliberately include information in this account which I/we know to be false.

I/We understand that I/we may have to pay financial penalties if this account is delivered late or contains false information, or if I/we fail to remedy anything in this account which is incorrect in any material respect within a reasonable time of it coming to my/our notice.

I/We understand that I/we may have to pay interest on any unpaid tax according to the law where:

- I/We have elected to pay tax by instalments
- additional tax becomes payable for any reason

Each person liable to pay the tax on this account as a trustee must sign on page 13 to indicate that they have read and agree the statements above. If the form is not physically signed then you must attach the declaration set out in the IHT100b notes.
