

Round 1: Connect Fund Successful Applications

Organisation	Project summary	Location	Area of Partner Organisation
Beat Carnival	Beat Carnival (Belfast) will undertake a short research and partnership visit to Global Grooves (Tameside) in February 2026 to explore shared challenges and opportunities in income diversification, female leadership in community music, youth leadership development and the recognition of carnival arts as a diverse and culturally significant UK-wide art form.	Belfast	Mossley (England)
Castles Community Trust	This project forms part of a two-year programme to build positive relationships between NI and GB veterans. Hosting two workshops for 22 veterans, curbing social isolation.	Belfast	Shrewsbury (England)
Centre for Democracy and Peace Building	Will fund part of an annual leadership development programme, that aims to empower NI civic leaders through a residential in GB (Oxford).	Belfast	Oxford
CO3 - Chief Officers Third Sector East West Forum	This project aims to establish a collaborative East-West leadership forum for 30 Chief Executives from the voluntary and community sectors across the UK, including a two-day residential at Corrymeela for workshops and knowledge sharing.	Belfast	London, Edinburgh
Communities 1st	A two-day exchange programme between Volunteer Now and Communities 1st focusing on how each group delivers services, supports leadership development and uses digital tools.	St Albans (England)	Belfast
Community Development and Health Network	This project unites two community development organisations, one in NI and one in Scotland. Consists of six events, including networking and in-person meetings. Aims to combat health inequalities and poverty.	Newry (NI)	Glasgow (Scotland)
Community Places NI	This project aims to deliver targeted planning advice and build capacity for disadvantaged communities using Spatial Place Plans. This will be accomplished via two key events: a Cross-National Learning Visit to Wales, where CPNI will collaborate with Welsh leaders to implement place-based plans and develop a community empowerment tool; and a Four Nations Learning Workshop that brings together all UK Planning Aid Services to share lessons, address challenges, and establish long-term cooperation.	Belfast	Cardiff, Edinburgh, London

Grow the Glens CIC	This project will see a collaboration between Scotland and NI, facilitating face-to-face meetings in each respective areas of collaboration. This will involve a working party from each area hosting a workshop and visit to relevant assets in Antrim and Argyll. These events aim to build solutions around mutual issues, such as: Access to services, tourism, transport, and ageing population.	Ballymena (NI)	Isle of Gigha (Scotland), West Darlochan (Scotland) Edinburgh, Belfast
Holywell Trust	This project is a scoping exercise between Holywell Trust and the Eden Project. There will be in-person visits to Cornwall and six collaborative sessions to enable this partnership to strengthen connection, explore shared challenges, and foster long-term relationships.	Derry / Londonderry (NI)	Cornwall (England)
JoinHer Network CIC	This project includes a seven-month fellowship for emerging leaders, a civic and cultural dialogue series, and the launch of a digital bridge platform; aimed at underrepresented individuals from African, Caribbean, and other racialised communities.	Newtownabbey (NI)	Belfast, Austell (England), Chelmsford (England), London
Kabosh	This project will deliver a touring programme for a Kabosh production (Not on Our Watch) across England, Scotland, Wales, and NI. The project will also deliver a subsequent post-show discussion based in each nation, which will be hosted by regional Women's Committees facilitating informed dialogue through lived experiences.	Belfast	London
Live Music Now	This project will host 'The Lullaby Project Information Sharing Day' in Belfast, delivered in collaboration with organisations across England and NI. The project will bring together 30 delegates including musicians, health partners and community experts to engage in training, collaboration, and peer learning on songwriting, trauma-informed practice, and perinatal mental health.	Strathfoyle (NI)	Belfast, Wickford (England)
Northern Ireland Council for Voluntary Action	The project aims to connect UK voluntary and community sectors by facilitating shared-knowledge, and developing a UK-wide toolkit of resources.	Belfast	London, Edinburgh, Cardiff
Northern Ireland Women's Budget Group	The project will join the 4 WBGs for a two-day, in-person summit to produce a 5-year, cross-nation strategy. A facilitator will direct strategic conversations and produce a strategy for the groups to agree and enact. Travel will be included to ensure equal representation and participation from each of the nations.	Belfast	London, Cardiff, Glasgow.
Photo Festival Belfast	A one day in-person director-level meeting to connect Directors from Belfast, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Cardiff and Bristol to share learnings and experiences, building on becoming a collective national voice for photography.	Belfast	Cardiff, Bristol (England), Liverpool
Save the Children	The project aims to connect leaders across England, Scotland, Wales to share learning around tackling child poverty through community-led approaches.	London	Belfast, Buckfastleigh (England)

Sole Purpose	This project will bring the production 'The Marian Hotel' to theatres across NI and Liverpool, partnering with Liverpool organisations to aid delivery. The project will also host an exhibition with artistic outlets for victims and survivors.	Derry / Londonderry (NI)	Leeds (England)
South Tyrone Empowerment Programme	This project aims to facilitate dialogue on shared environmental challenges, specifically the degeneration of Lough Neagh, by learning from organisations in Scotland through field trips and stakeholder conferences.	Dungannon (NI)	Belfast, Surrey (England), South Uist (Scotland)
The Rainbow Project Ltd	This project aims to establish an East-West LGBTQIA+ Forum to build connections and working relationships between LGBTQIA+ organisations in Britain and Northern Ireland.	Belfast	Exeter (England)
The Women's Organisation	This pilot project is a cross-border partnership between England and NI. It aims to bring together women from disadvantaged and rural communities with civic and health stakeholders. Activities include two collaborative sessions, insight-gathering, and a joint workshop. In order to produce recommendations and lay foundations for long-term collaboration between GB and NI to improve women's health access.	Liverpool (England)	Cookstown (NI)
Ulster Touring Opera	This project will see a collaboration between Welsh and NI based Youth Opera performers to perform at the Belfast Children's Festival.	Belfast	Cardiff
United Youth Alliance	The project will see the co-creation of a 4 nations strategy and increase opportunities for young women in Northern Ireland to engage in youth-led social action.	Blackpool (England)	Belfast, Dumfries (Scotland) Newport (Wales),
Volunteer Now	Volunteer Now alongside its partner organisations will use the Connect Fund to re-engage members and refocus its work through facilitated meetings, including two for Chief Executives. The core aim is to develop a five-year Strategic Plan and Communications Plan to strengthen leadership within the volunteering sector.	Belfast	Stirling (Scotland), London (England), Cardiff (Wales)
YouthAction Northern Ireland	Aims to strengthen East-West civic relationships through a Youth Leader Summit in Belfast for young leaders (18-35) and a Cross Nations Leadership Summit for the leadership teams of existing cross-nation partners.	Belfast	Christchurch (England), Edinburgh, Treforest (Wales)

Round 2: Connect Fund Successful Applications

Organisation	Project summary	Location	Area of Partner Organisation
--------------	-----------------	----------	------------------------------

Arts Care Limited	This initiative is a collaborative partnership between Arts Care (Northern Ireland) and Equal Arts (North East England), running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027. The project addresses access to creative programming within care homes and supported living settings, specifically for older people and those living with dementia. The programme is built on evidence that artistic participation significantly improves health, wellbeing, and social connection for isolated populations. By sharing expertise between regions, the partners aim to overcome systemic barriers and enhance leadership capabilities within the healthcare arts sector.	Belfast	Newcastle (England)
bBeyond	The NI-GB Performance Art Network is a collaborative initiative led by Bbeyond in partnership with TactileBosch (Wales), the Belfast School of Art, and the University for the Creative Arts (Canterbury). Running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027, the project seeks to bridge the geographic and financial gaps that often limit Northern Irish performance artists from engaging with the wider UK creative landscape. By fostering a participant-centred, "people-to-people" approach, the programme creates safe and inclusive structures for artists, students, and community members to develop civic leadership skills and cultural understanding.	Belfast	Cardiff Belfast Canterbury (England)
Building Communities Resource Centre	Community Voices East-West is a collaborative initiative between the Building Communities Resource Centre (BCRC), based in Northern Ireland (Causeway Coast and Glens), and the Crossroads Youth and Community Association in Glasgow, Scotland. The project is designed to facilitate structured East-West dialogue and joint place-based learning events, bringing together community leaders from both regions. By creating safe and constructive spaces for engagement, the partnership aims to explore shared social and economic pressures, foster mutual understanding, and build enduring civic connections across the United Kingdom. Ultimately, the initiative seeks to strengthen the capacity of local leaders to address common challenges through a lens of shared learning and future-focused cooperation.	Ballymoney (NI)	Glasgow

Community Places NI	The Planning Aid Northern Ireland Network is a UK-wide initiative running from April 2026 to March 2027. It aims to address the systemic inequalities that prevent marginalised communities from participating in the planning process. By building a unified network across all four nations, the project seeks to overcome barriers such as complex technical language and a lack of accessible engagement opportunities. The initiative focuses on empowering local people to shape their own environments through independent planning advice and strengthened community involvement.	Belfast	London Cardiff Edinburgh
Co-operation Ireland	The Deliberation Collaborative NI-Wales is an East-West partnership running from 1 May 2026 to 1 February 2027. It aims to bolster Co-operation Ireland's expertise in two specialised fields: Deliberative Democracy and Disarmament, Demobilisation, and Reintegration. The project is designed to strengthen organisational capacity and cross-jurisdictional learning, through a structured programme of research, study visits, training, and knowledge exchange delivered on an East-West basis between Northern Ireland and Wales.	Belfast	Aberystwyth (Scotland)
Easilink Community Transport	Connecting Rural Communities is a seven-month East-West knowledge exchange partnership running from April 2026 to October 2026. The initiative brings together Easilink Community Transport in Northern Ireland and two partners in Aberdeenshire, Scotland: The Banffshire Partnership Ltd and The Boyndie Trust Ltd. The project addresses shared rural challenges, such as social isolation and limited access to essential services, by exploring sustainable community transport and social enterprise models.	Strabane (NI)	Banff (Scotland)
East Belfast Community Development Agency	The project aims to build the capacity, skills, networks, and relationships of 11 emerging leaders from the community and voluntary sector in East Belfast. This will be achieved by providing them with greater insight into community development practice outside of Northern Ireland, specifically through a study visit to London. The goal is to facilitate positive and constructive dialogue on shared challenges facing communities across the UK (such as poverty, housing, and demographic change). By exposing leaders to alternative models of community development, the project seeks to prevent stagnation, encourage innovation, and build leadership capability opportunities on an East-West basis.	Belfast	London

Enterprise Causeway	Life Between Two Coasts is a 12-month East–West partnership between Enterprise Causeway (The Courthouse, Bushmills, Northern Ireland) and the Globe Gallery (North Shields, North East England). Running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027, the project aims to formalise cooperation between these two community-rooted cultural organisations.	Coleraine (NI)	Tyne & Wear (England)
Environmental Justice Network Ireland	The goal of this project is to establish options for the creation of an East/West Environmental Rights Forum. The project centers on an in-person, one-day facilitated workshop that will bring together environmental rights organisations from across the UK to exchange ideas and discuss co-creation of collaborative mechanisms.	Belfast	Edinburgh
Go-Woman Alliance Community Interest Company	Strong Enough To Share is a collaborative initiative between the Go-Woman Alliance Community Interest Company (GOAL) and Kilcooley Women’s Centre. Running from 1 May 2026 to December 2026, the project focuses on strengthening women-led social enterprises across the UK, specifically linking Northern Ireland and Great Britain. The initiative acknowledges that women face unique systemic barriers in the social enterprise sector, including financial bias, lower investment levels, and the pressures of unpaid caring responsibilities.	Birmingham	Bangor
Kabosh	Not On Our Watch' is an expanded UK-wide touring programme led by the Belfast-based theatre company Kabosh, in partnership with Unite the Union Women’s Committees across England, Scotland, and Wales. Running from 4 May 2026 to 1 February 2027, the project builds on a successful pilot to deepen East–West civic collaboration and solidarity. The initiative uses theatre as a catalyst for dialogue on gender equality, social justice, and workplace rights. By staging performances in accessible civic and trade union spaces, the project aims to reach women workers directly and amplify their voices within a safe, inclusive environment.	Belfast	London
Kilcooley Womens Centre	The JEWEL Project is a collaborative initiative designed to establish a permanent framework for female leadership across the UK. Running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027, it connects grassroots leaders from Kilcooley Women’s Centre, GOAL Women’s Alliance, and Devon Mind. The project addresses the historical isolation of frontline female leaders in disadvantaged regions by creating a formalised platform for sharing trauma-informed and culturally competent practice models.	Bangor (NI)	Birmingham Devon (England)

Live Music Now	Shared Lullabies is a creative health initiative led by Live Music Now (LMN), designed to support families in Northern Ireland and Essex facing mild to moderate perinatal mental health challenges. Running from May 2026 to March 2027, the project implements the internationally recognised Lullaby Project model to strengthen parent-child bonding and improve parental wellbeing through collaborative songwriting.	Londonderry / Derry	Belfast Essex (England)
Newtownbreda Football Club	East Meets West is a celebratory partnership initiative marking the 50th anniversaries of Newtownbreda FC in Northern Ireland and Stafford Town FC in England. Scheduled for August 2026, the project centres on a structured exchange visit where members of the Belfast-based club travel to the West Midlands.	Belfast	Stafford (England)
Northern Ireland Environment Link	Landscapes Youth Connect is a collaborative initiative led by Northern Ireland Environment Link in partnership with EUROPARC Atlantic Isles. Running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027, the project aims to deepen East–West cooperation between youth groups active in designated landscapes across the United Kingdom. The programme focuses on empowering the Landscapes Youth NI group by connecting them with Youth Ranger and Ambassador programmes in National Parks and protected landscapes across Great Britain.	Belfast	Wiltshire (England)
Northern Ireland Rural Women's Network	This project is a strategic partnership led by the Northern Ireland Rural Women's Network (NIRWN) in collaboration with Derry Well Women and The Women's Organisation. Running as a follow-up to an initial exploratory phase, this initiative focuses on addressing persistent inequalities in women's access to healthcare and their limited influence over health system design in both England and Northern Ireland. The programme uniquely bridges the gap between grassroots lived experience and high-level policy by involving the England Women's Health Strategy Partnership and representatives from the Department of Health. This alignment ensures that the project's findings support national priorities, including digital transformation and the development of a dedicated women's health strategy for Northern Ireland.	Cookstown (NI)	Liverpool (England)

Northern Ireland Women's Budget Group	This project is a collaborative effort led by the Northern Ireland Women's Budget Group in partnership with its counterparts in Scotland, Wales, and the UK-wide group. Running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027, the initiative focuses on monitoring and refining a long-term strategy to advance gender economic equality across all four nations. The project addresses the need for dedicated, in-person strategic planning time to ensure the collective remains responsive to the differing political and economic landscapes across the UK.	Belfast	London Cardiff Glasgow
Rural Community Network NI	This project will support a study visit from Northern Ireland to Scotland, enabling six community development practitioners (five participants and one coordinator) to attend the World Community Development Conference.	Tyrone (NI)	No Partner
Schomberg Society Kilkeel Ltd	Pitch & Prose is a dual-strand civic initiative delivered by the Schomberg Society, designed to strengthen long-standing connections between communities in Northern Ireland and Scotland. Running from 1 May 2026 to 31 March 2027, the programme addresses shared social challenges, such as youth disengagement and community tension, while celebrating a shared Ulster-Scottish cultural heritage.	Kilkeel (NI)	Glasgow Kilkeel Ayr (Scotland)
Springboard Opportunities Ltd	Horizon is a 12-month initiative by Springboard Opportunities Limited, running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027. The project is designed to evolve community cohesion strategies in Northern Ireland by learning from established, ethnically diverse contexts in England.	Belfast	No Partner
The Rainbow Project	The East-West LGBTQIA+ Forum is a UK-wide initiative led by The Rainbow Project Ltd in partnership with the LGBT Consortium. Running from 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2027, this second phase builds upon a successful pilot to formalise a consistent platform for cooperation between LGBTQIA+ organisations in Northern Ireland and Great Britain.	Belfast	Exeter (England)
YouthAction	Islands of Innovation 2 is a strategic youth leadership initiative led by YouthAction Northern Ireland. Running as a second phase of the Connect Fund, the project aims to deepen civic relationships and create a permanent infrastructure for collaboration between young leaders across Northern Ireland, England, Scotland, and Wales. The programme addresses the "knowledge silos" that often affect the youth sector by moving beyond one-off events and creating structured, long-term opportunities for young people (aged 18–35) to address shared social inequalities and improve civic participation.	Belfast	Christchurch (England) Edinburgh Wales