BETWEEN

Claimant

and

Respondent

Mr G. Shaw

Ministry of Defence

Employment Judge Smail

4 March 2026

The Employment Judge has determined this case on the papers. There will be no further Judicial or administrative consideration of it. There has already been a wholly disproportionate amount of Judicial and administrative time spent on it. This is a very straightforward case, and it ends with this Judgment. The Judgment may be enforced by the Claimant in the County Court if it is not paid. The Employment Tribunal will spend no further time on it, however.

JUDGMENT

1. The Claimant's claim for outstanding holiday pay is well-founded by consent of the Respondent.
2. The Respondent will pay the Claimant £264.33 within 14 days with no further deduction for tax or national insurance.
