

When to use this form

Fill in this form to give details of any assets that were owned jointly by the deceased and any other persons.

Do not include:

- jointly owned assets outside the UK - these assets should be included on form IHT417, 'Foreign assets'
- assets owned jointly by a business or partnership - these assets should be included on form IHT413, 'Business and partnership interests and assets'

If the joint assets include houses, land or buildings and interests in land you will also need to fill in form IHT405, 'Houses, land, buildings and interests in land' to provide a full description of the land and property.

Agricultural Relief and Business Relief

For deaths on and after 6 April 2026, relief at 100% on the combined value of qualifying agricultural and/or business property is limited to £2.5 million. This value will include any gifts of qualifying property made on or after 30 October 2024 and within 7 years of the death and other property (including trust property) that is treated as part of the estate. Where the total value of qualifying property exceeds £2.5 million, the excess will qualify for relief at 50%.

Unused £2.5 million allowance from a late spouse or civil partner may be transferred to the deceased's estate, provided that a claim is made within 4 years of the survivor's death or within 6 months of the personal representatives starting their role.

Additionally, shares in companies listed on a market that does not meet the definition of 'listed' for HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) purposes (such as Alternative Investment Market (AIM)), can now only qualify for 50% relief.

Jointly owned assets where all the money was provided by the deceased

Sometimes assets may be owned jointly with another person, but one person provided all the money, either in an account or to buy an asset. For example, an elderly person who has difficulty getting out, may add the name of a relative to an account for convenience so the relative may draw out money on the elderly person's behalf.

If the person who provided all the money dies, then their share of this account will be the whole. But if the other joint owner has withdrawn money for their own use, those withdrawals may be gifts and you may need to include them on form IHT403, 'Gifts and other transfers of value'.

It follows that if someone died with their name on a joint account but they did not provide any of the funds, no part of the account need be included in the estate unless the other joint owner intended to make a gift to the deceased.

If there is not enough space on pages 2 to 6 to include all of the details, please fill in another copy of this form.

Name of the deceased

Date of death DD MM YYYY

Inheritance Tax reference number if known

Assets jointly owned with a surviving spouse or civil partner

If the other joint owner was the deceased's spouse or civil partner, at boxes 1 and 6 you only need to fill in columns A, B, F and G.

Reduced rate of Inheritance Tax

If the estate qualifies to pay the reduced rate of Inheritance Tax then you will also need to fill in form IHT430, 'Reduced rate of Inheritance Tax'.

How to value jointly owned assets

The discount for jointly owned assets is not an exemption or relief and must not be included in box 4 on page 3 or box 9 on page 5. Please read 'How to value joint property', including the examples, in the guidance notes about form IHT404 in the IHT400, 'Notes'.
