Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 26th April 2025 containing your request for information. The Government Legal Department ("GLD") have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act", "FOIA")

Request

[REDACTED] vs Information Commissioner and Cabinet Office [REDACTED]

In respect of the above appeal, please state whether GLD used bundle automation software openly available on the market in order to assemble the bundle for this appeal, if so then which product was used to compile the bundle for this appeal

A simple Google search shows plenty of products professing to render the task of bundle preparation to mere minutes

Response

Pursuant to Section 1(1)(a), GLD confirms that it holds the information you have requested.

Adobe Acrobat Pro was used to compile the bundle for the Strike Out Application dated 22 November 2024 and the Open Bundle which was filed and served on or around 26 March 2025

Your Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask GLD for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted to GLD within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original correspondence. Please use the contact details provided at the top of this letter in order to request an internal review relating to your original request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
