

Third English Law Promotion Panel Meeting, 2 July 2026: Abridged Minutes

Welcome and opening remarks

The Deputy Prime Minister opened the third meeting of the English Law Promotion Panel, highlighting recent developments in the UK legal sector and the importance of communicating the strengths of English law effectively. The meeting was chaired by the Minister for Courts and Legal Services, Sarah Sackman KC MP.

Prioritisation of sectors

The Panel discussed the approach to prioritising sectors for the promotional strategy.

The promotional narrative

Members considered the proposed promotional narrative for English law.

Proposed strategy framework

The Panel considered the proposed framework as a basis for developing the final strategy and discussed practical approaches to its delivery.

AOB

Members discussed plans for future events focussed on promoting English law and the wider UK legal sector.

Summary and next steps

Minister Sackman thanked members for their contributions. The Panel's discussion will inform the further development of the strategy and plans for future promotional events.