

CMA Markets Strategic Review Consultation Response

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to express my opinion regarding the BMA's role in setting rates for private medical practice fees. I firmly believe that these rates should not be determined by the BMA. Instead, they should be agreed upon between the doctor and the patient, ensuring a competitive and free market.

Thank you for considering my perspective. I look forward to any further discussions on this matter.