- 3.24 not to impede in any way the Agency or its employees, contractors or agents in the exercise of the Agency's right of possession and overall control of the Mooring Site and berth allocation;
- 3.25 not to fish without first obtaining permission from the appropriate local Angling Association.

4. Car parking All

The Licensee shall have the right to use the car park identified in the Site Rules on a temporary basis in connection with the use of the Berth. All vehicles are left entirely at the owner's risk.

5. Gate codes

- 5.1 A gate code will be issued to the Licensee on the start date of the Licence Period and is for the sole use of the Licensee.
- 5.2 Any code issued is for the sole use of the Licensee and must not be shared.

6. TERMINATION

- 6.1 If there is any breach by the Licensee of any conditions set out in clause 3 of this Licence which are either not remediable or have not been remedied by the Licensee within 28 days of receiving notice of the breach then this licence may immediately be determined by the Agency giving the Licensee written notice to that effect and the Licensee shall not be entitled to any refund in respect of the Licence Fee paid.
- 6.2 Either party may terminate this Licence for any reason by giving the other not less than eight weeks written notice and upon expiry of such notice this Licence shall absolutely cease and determine but without prejudice to either party's right in respect of any antecedent breach of the terms hereof. If the Licence is terminated by the Licensee pursuant to this clause the Agency shall be entitled to recalculate the Licence Fee at the rate that would have been applicable to the actual period of mooring instead of the annual rate. If this recalculation results in a balance payable to either party then this shall be paid prior to the date of termination.
- 6.3 This Licence will terminate automatically in the event of:
 - a. the death of the Licensee; and
 - b. a disposal of the Licensee's Boat whereupon the Licensee shall notify the Agency in writing at least one month prior to such a disposal and provide details of the purchaser. The Licensee shall also notify the purchaser of the requirement to enter into a new licence with the Agency.
- 6.4 Upon termination or expiry of this Licence:
 - 6.4.1 the Licensee shall immediately remove the Boat from the Mooring Site and in default the Agency shall be entitled to charge the Licensee at the Agency's penalty rate for overstayers as published in the Site Rules for each day between termination or expiry of this Licence and the actual date of removal. If the Boat has not been removed within fourteen days of termination or expiry the Agency shall be entitled (but not obliged) to remove the Boat from the Mooring Site (at the Licensee's risk except for any loss or damage caused by the Agency's negligence) and secure it elsewhere and to charge the Licensee with all reasonable costs and expenses arising from such removal including alternative berthing fees.
 - 6.4.2 the Agency reserves a general right ('a general lien') to detain the Boat pending payment by the Licensee of any outstanding sums due to the Agency pursuant to this Licence and which remain unpaid for 21 days after the date upon which the same ought to have been paid AND if this Licence is terminated or expires while the Agency is exercising this right of detention it shall be entitled to charge the Licensee at the Agency's penalty rate for overstayers as published in the Site Rules for each day between termination or expiry of this Licence and the actual date of payment.

7 GENERAL

- 7.1 There is excepted and reserved unto the Agency the right at any time during the Licence Period to request that the Boat be relocated to an alternative berth within the Mooring Site for any reason upon giving the Licensee reasonable notice (except in the case of emergency when no notice is required) and in the event that the Agency shall exercise this right the Licensee shall relocate the Boat to such alternative berth as soon as reasonably practicable and in default the Agency shall be entitled to relocate the Boat and charge the Licensee with all reasonable costs arising from such relocation.
- 7.2 The Licensee acknowledges that the Berth is licensed entirely at his own risk and the Agency accepts no responsibility for the safety of the Boat moored or for any damage to or the loss of property or for any losses or other liability whatsoever which shall or may occur to or be sustained by the Licensee during the exercise or purported exercise of the rights granted by this Licence (except to the extent caused by the Agency's negligence).
- 7.3 The Licensee must obtain the Agency's written consent prior to undertaking works of any nature on the Boat while at the Mooring Site (including all works carried out to fuel electrical and gas systems and appliances). Copies of contractor's third party liability insurance method statements and relevant risk assessments must be made available for inspection by the Agency for any work to be undertaken and all contractors on site must first register with the Agency's Officer.
- 7.4 The Agency gives the Licensee no warranty in respect of the water levels at the Mooring Site or at the Berth and it is the Licensee's responsibility to ensure that the Boat is secured in such a way as to cope with fluctuations in water level.
- 7.5 Notwithstanding the terms and provisions of this Licence legal possession and control of the Mooring Site shall at all times remain vested in the Agency and this Licence is not intended to confer exclusive possession of the Berth to the Licensee nor to create the relationship of landlord and tenant between the parties and this Licence shall not in any way confer or impose on either of them any of the rights or obligations of a landlord or tenant or any other rights or obligations save those expressed or implied by law.
- 7.6 The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply to this Licence and nothing in this Licence is intended to confer any benefit on any person who is not a party to it.
- 7.7 The provisions of Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 as amended by the Recorded Delivery Service Act 1962 shall apply to any Notice under this Licence.
