

Solidarity Trade Union
Statement to Members 2025

Issued in accordance with section 32A of the Trade Union and Labour Relations
(Consolidation) Act 1992

This statement summarises the Union's financial affairs for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Income and expenditure

During the year:

- Total income: £23,294
- Of this, £18,872 was received from members' subscriptions and contributions.
- Other income amounted to £4,422.
- Total expenditure: £22,034

Political Fund

The Union did not operate a Political Fund during the year.

- Political Fund income: £0
- Political Fund expenditure: £0
- Political Fund balance: £0

Salaries and benefits of officers

During the year, the remuneration and benefits of the Union's General Secretary were:

Description	Amount
Gross salary	£8,286
Employer National Insurance contributions	£40
Employer pension contributions	£122
Other benefit (non-taxable trivial gifts)	£1,674
Total remuneration and benefits	£10,122

No other officer received remuneration requiring disclosure in this statement.

Auditor's opinion

The Union's independent auditor has reported that the Annual Return gives a true and fair view of the Union's financial affairs and has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

Members' rights

Irregularity statement

A member who is concerned that some irregularity may be occurring, or have occurred, in the conduct of the financial affairs of the union may take steps with a view to investigating further, obtaining clarification and, if necessary, securing regularisation of that conduct.

The member may raise any such concern with such one or more of the following as it seems appropriate to raise it with: the officials of the union, the trustees of the property of the union, the auditor or auditors of the union, the Certification Officer (who is an independent officer appointed by the Secretary of State) and the police.

Where a member believes that the financial affairs of the union have been or are being conducted in breach of the law or in breach of the rules of the union and contemplates bringing civil proceedings against the union or responsible officials or trustees, he should consider obtaining independent legal advice.

A copy of the Union's full Annual Return is available for inspection by members on request.