Full REASONS

Background

1. The landlord submitted an application, received 22 April 2026 to register a rent of £244.00 per week. Previous to the application the Rent Officer had registered a fair rent of £212.00 per week registered on 29 May 2024 with effect from 7 July 2024.

2. Following the application the Rent Officer registered a fair rent of £233.92 per week on 1 June 2026 with an effective date of 7 July 2026. Following an objection from the tenant on 12 June 2026 to the determination of a fair rent by the Rent Officer, the Tribunal has made a determination under the provisions of the Rent Act 1977.

3. Directions were issued on 14 July 2026. Neither party requested a hearing or inspection, the tribunal made its determination on 16 September 2026.

The Property

4. The previous rent register entry stated “self - contained purpose built flat around 1800 to 1918, without central heating comprising one room, one bath/WC, one living room – kitchen.

Evidence

Submission by the tenant

8. The tenant has made no submissions other than the objection letter which contended that the increase was excessive.

Submission by the landlord

9. The landlord has not made any submissions.

Nature of flat to be determined

10. The Tribunal finds that the nature of the flat for which the rent is to be determined is that at the commencement of the tenancy that is 2006 condition but with the landlord’s improvements. No evidence has been submitted.

Valuation

12. In determining the level of rent for the fair rent, the Tribunal must carry out a valuation under section 70 of the Rent Act 1977 and then an assessment under the Rent Acts (Maximum Fair Rent) Order 1999. The latter assessment is dependent on the inflation rate between the last registered rent and the date of the current determination which is the date of hearing. The Tribunal must then adopt the lower of the two figures as the fair rent to be registered. The Tribunal cannot take into account the financial circumstances of the tenant in determining the rent.

13. The Tribunal must consider the flat in the condition as let but including the landlord's improvements, none are noted.

14. No comparable evidence has been provided by the either party. The Tribunal relies on its expertise and adopts the figure of £1450 per calendar month. This figure reflects a property with central heating. The subject property is said not to have central heating. Additionally, a regulated tenancy is expected to have differing terms and conditions from that of a contemporary assured shorthold tenancy, so an adjustment is made for that. Finally, the Rent Act requires adjustment for "scarcity" the tribunal applies 20% for this.

Market Rent	£1650.00 per month
-------------	--------------------

Less: 20% for items in para 14; and 20% scarcity less	£660.00 per month
--	-------------------

Net rent	£990.00 per month
----------	-------------------

Decision

15. The rent calculated under section 70 Rent Act 1977 is £228.00 per week.

16. The rent calculated under the Rent Acts (Maximum Fair Rent) Order 1999 is, £241.00 per week

17. The rent calculated under section 70 of the Rent Act 1977 rent is £228.00 per week. Therefore, the Tribunal determines the rent to be that calculated is that under section 70 because it is lower than the Rent calculated under the 1999 Order, which is £228.00 per month with effect from 16 September 2026.
