16th May 2025

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 8th May 2025 containing your request for information. The Government Legal Department ("GLD") have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act", "FOIA")

Request

Please could you provide the following information:

1. The number of inward secondments from technology and AI companies that have worked in your department during the period from 05/07/2024 to the present.
2. For each of these secondments during this period, please provide:
 - a. The organisation the individual was seconded from
 - b. The date they commenced their secondment
 - c. The date they concluded/will conclude their secondment
 - d. Whether your department paid the secondee/reimbursed their organisation.
 - e. A brief summary of the remit of the secondee.

If the amount of information I have asked for would be over the cost limit allowed for FOI requests, please advise me how I might reword it to come under. May I remind you of your duty under s16 to assist and advise me.

Response

Pursuant to Section 1(1)(a), GLD confirms that it does not hold the information you have requested.

GLD holds a list of secondments, but they don't hold specific details on that type of role.

Your Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask GLD for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted to GLD within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original correspondence. Please use the contact details provided at the top of this letter in order to request an internal review relating to your original request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
