Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 06 January 2025 which contained your request for information. The Government Legal Department ("GLD") have processed your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act").

Request

I would be most grateful if you would provide me, under the Freedom of Information Act, details in respect to the contract below.

Electronic Document Bundling:

The details we require are:

- What are the contractual performance KPI's for this contract?
- Start date & duration of framework/contract?
- Is there an extension clause in the framework(s)/contract(s) and, if so, the duration of the extension?
- Has a decision been made yet on whether the framework(s)/contract(s) are being either extended or renewed?

- Who is the senior officer (outside of procurement) responsible for this contract, as the officer named on the government's contract finder service is no longer contactable?

Response

GLD does not consider your request to be a valid Freedom of Information request, as per Section 8(1)(b) of the Act. Guidance from the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") states that a valid request "must be in writing; include the requester's name and an address for correspondence; and describes the information requested".

Your request is considered invalid pursuant to Section 8(1)(b) of the Act as you have only provided your first name.

In line with our duty to provide advice and assistance to applicants, GLD will consider your request once it is satisfied that it meets the requirements of Section 8 of the Act. In this instance, please provide your full name (i.e. any variation of your title or first name combined with your surname).

Please consider the ICO's guidance on how to make a valid information request, here.

Your Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original correspondence. Please use the contact details provided at the top of this letter in order to request an internal review relating to your original request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
