09th December 2025

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 12th November 2025 containing your request for information. The Government Legal Department ("GLD") have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act", "FOIA")

Request

I would like to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Some or all of the information previously provided may now be out of date, so I would be grateful if you could provide updated responses to the following questions. Please address each section individually and, where multiple suppliers exist, provide information separately for each.

Contract 1 – Wide Area Network (WAN) Services (Including HSCN)

15. WAN Provider(s)

Please confirm the main supplier(s) for your WAN services. If this information is not available, please explain why.

16. Contract Expiry Date

Please provide the expiry date for each WAN contract (DD/MM/YYYY or MM/YYYY acceptable). If rolling, please state the terms.

17. Contract Description

Please provide a brief summary of the scope of each WAN contract.

18. Number of Sites Covered

Please indicate the number of sites supported by the WAN. An approximation is acceptable.

19. Annual Average Spend

What is the annual average spend for WAN services? Please break this down by provider if more than one.

20. Procurement Route

Please provide details of how each WAN contract was procured. If a framework was used, please include the framework name and reference number.

Internal Contact

21. Responsible Contact Person(s)

Please provide the full contact details for the person(s) responsible for each of the above contracts, including:

- Full name
- Job title
- Direct phone number
- Email address

If full details cannot be provided, the job title alone is acceptable.

Response

Pursuant to Section 1(1)(a) of the Act, GLD confirms that it holds the information you have requested.

Internal Contact

21. Responsible Contact Person(s)

You requested the full contact details (name, job title, direct phone number, and email address) for the individual(s) responsible for the above contracts.

This part of the request is refused under Section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (Personal Information).

Disclosure of named individuals' contact details would constitute the release of personal data, and doing so would contravene the data protection principles under the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. Officials have a reasonable expectation that their personal contact details will not be made public through FOI. We have considered whether a legitimate public interest exists in disclosure, but we find no such interest that overrides the rights and freedoms of the individuals concerned.

We are, however, able to provide the job title of the responsible role:
Head of Digital Business Operations

Your Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask GLD for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted to GLD within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original correspondence. Please use the contact details provided at the top of this letter in order to request an internal review relating to your original request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
