06th May 2025

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 20th April 2025 containing your request for information. The Government Legal Department ("GLD") have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act", "FOIA").

Request

Please, under the Freedom of Information Act, advise how much was paid to Dominic Crossley/his firm, for representing the victims at the Leveson Inquiry (including preliminary and post Inquiry costs).

Response

Pursuant to Section 1(1)(a), GLD confirms that it does not hold the information you have requested.

The Leveson Inquiry was an independent Public Inquiry established under the Inquiries Act 2005. Although it is possible that the Inquiry may have awarded amounts in respect of legal representation under section 40 of the Inquiries Act, information relating to any such awards would have been held by the Leveson Inquiry.

Your Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask GLD for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted to GLD within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original correspondence. Please use the contact details provided at the top of this letter in order to request an internal review relating to your original request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
