date in the landlord's Form 4a, the tenant must: 1. Refer the rent increase to the Tribunal before the start of the new rent period of 1 August 2026: The completed Form MR1 / Rents 1 from the tenant, met this requirement, being dated 16 July 2026. The tenant must also: 2. Provide a copy of the landlord's Notice of rent increase, the Form 4a: They did: And 3. Provide a full copy of their tenancy: They did not.

3 In order for the Tribunal to have jurisdiction to be able to determine a new market rent under S.14 of the Housing Act 1988, from the effective date in the landlord's Form 4a, the landlord's notice must be valid: It was. The Notice has to specify the date when the increase in rent will start from and be at least two months hence 1 August 2026 from service on 1 June 2026: It did and was.

Law

13 Increases of rent under assured periodic tenancies tenancies other than relevant low-cost tenancies.

(1)This section applies to—

(a) a statutory periodic tenancy other than one which, by virtue of paragraph 11 or paragraph 12 in Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act, cannot for the time being be an assured tenancy; and

(b) any other periodic tenancy which is an assured tenancy, other than one in relation to which there is a provision, for the time being binding on the tenant, under which the rent for a particular period of the tenancy will or may be greater than the rent for an earlier period.

And for "social housing" tenancies.

13A Increases of rent under relevant low-cost tenancies

(1) This section applies to a relevant low-cost tenancy within the meaning given by section 13(4C).

(2) For the purpose of securing an increase in the rent under a tenancy to which this section applies, the landlord may serve on the tenant a notice in the prescribed form proposing a new rent to take effect at the beginning of a new period of the tenancy specified in the notice, being a period beginning not earlier than—

(a) one month after the date of the service of the notice, and

(b) in the case of an assured agricultural occupancy, the first anniversary of the date on which the first period of the tenancy began, and

(c) if the rent under the tenancy has previously been increased by virtue of a notice under this subsection or a determination under section 14, either—

(i) in the case of an assured agricultural occupancy, the first anniversary of the date on which the increased rent took effect, or

(ii) in any other case, the appropriate date.

(3) The appropriate date is—

(a) in a case to which subsection (4) applies, the date that falls 53 weeks after the date on which the increased rent took effect;

(b) in any other case, the date that falls 52 weeks after the date on which the increased rent took effect.

(4) This subsection applies where—

(a) the rent under the tenancy has been increased by virtue of a notice under this section or a determination under section 14 on at least one occasion after the coming into force of the Regulatory Reform (Assured Periodic Tenancies) (Rent Increases) Order 2003, and

(b) the fifty-third week after the date on which the last such increase took effect begins more than six days before the anniversary of the date on which the first such increase took effect.

(5) Where a notice is served under subsection (2), a new rent specified in the notice takes effect as mentioned in the notice unless, before the beginning of the new period specified in the notice—

(a) the tenant applies to the tribunal under section 14(A3), or

(b) the landlord and the tenant agree on a variation of the rent which is different from that proposed in the notice or agree that the rent should not be varied.

(6) Nothing in this section (or in section 14) affects the right of the landlord and the tenant under a relevant low-cost tenancy within the meaning given by section 13(4C) to vary by agreement any term of the tenancy (including a term relating to rent).

Decision

4 The Tribunal did not receive a copy of the full lease of the Property. This absence alone means that the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to decide the new rent.

5 The new rent will be as proposed in the landlord's S.13 notice with effect from and including 1 August 2026.

Rights of appeal

By rule 36(2) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Property Chamber) Rules 2013, the Tribunal is required to notify the parties about any right of appeal they may have.

If a party wishes to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), then a written application for permission must be made to the First-tier Tribunal at the regional office which has been dealing with the case.

The application for permission to appeal must arrive at the regional office within 28 days after the Tribunal sends written reasons for the decision to the person making the application.

If the application is not made within the 28 day time limit, such application must include a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28 day time limit; the Tribunal will then look at such reason(s) and decide whether to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed, despite not being within the time limit.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the Tribunal to which it relates (i.e. give the date, the property and the case number), state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the application is seeking.

If the Tribunal refuses to grant permission to appeal, a further application for permission may be made to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber).
