Summary

This document provides local authorities with advance notice of the questions they will be asked to answer in the 2027 data collection on the home-to-school travel they fund for eligible pupils. The collection will go live in April 2027. This document is intended to help local authorities prepare for the collection going live and consider the data they will need to collate.

Guidance to support completion of the collection is available at Home-to-school travel: data collection.
