Dear [redacted]

Thank you for your email of 5th March 2025 containing your request for information. The Government Legal Department ("GLD") have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act", "FOIA")

Request

Please supply a copy of the letter of 10 November 2009 sent on behalf of the Department for Transport to High Court (Admin) cited in Beatson J's judgment [2010] EWHC 894 (Admin) at paragraphs 8 and 43.

Response

Pursuant to Section 1(1)(a), GLD confirms that it does not hold the information you have requested.

Subject to the Section 16 of the Act, GLD has an obligation to provide advice and assistance to applicants.
The letter dated 10 November 2009 will no longer be available as the default retention period at GLD is six years.

Your Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask GLD for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted to GLD within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original correspondence. Please use the contact details provided at the top of this letter in order to request an internal review relating to your original request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
