Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you cannot vote in person, you can have someone you trust (your proxy) vote on your behalf.

This form applies only in England. You can use it to apply to vote by proxy if you are registered to vote, or have applied to be registered, as a member of the armed forces or a spouse or civil partner of someone who is.

You must confirm with your proxy that they are eligible to vote on your behalf. They must be registered to vote and eligible to vote in the type of election taking place. Your proxy can vote on behalf of up to 4 people. No more than 2 of those people can be living in the UK and the rest must either be overseas or service voters.

You can complete this form to appoint one proxy for all elections you are entitled to vote in. You can choose to apply for a permanent proxy vote, appoint a proxy for a particular period, or appoint a proxy for one or more elections held on the same day.

If you want to appoint different proxies for different types of election, please contact your electoral registration office.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- Ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form.
- Make sure all required sections of the form are complete and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your electoral registration office.
- If your application has missing or incorrect information, your electoral registration office will contact you. You may need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.
- Return your form to your electoral registration office.

When applying for a new proxy vote, you must return your application form by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll.

When changing or cancelling an existing postal, proxy or postal proxy vote, you must return your application form by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll.

If you are not already registered to vote, you must apply to register before applying for a proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote or contact your electoral registration office to request a paper form. For more information, speak to your Unit Registration Officer or contact your electoral registration office.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You must let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote on your behalf by post. They can apply to do this until 5pm, 11 working days before the poll. They can contact your electoral registration office for more details and to request a postal proxy vote application form.
- If you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote on your behalf by post.
