EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: G Smith

Respondent: Philip James Kennedy Ltd

JUDGMENT

1. The claim was presented in the Manchester Employment Tribunal on 12 August 2025. The respondent has failed to present a valid response on time. The Employment Judge has decided that a determination can properly be made of the claim, or part of it, in accordance with rule 22 of the Rules of Procedure.

2. The complaint of unauthorised deductions from wages is well-founded. The respondent has made an unauthorised deduction from the claimant's wages in the period 4 March 2025 to 13 May 2025 and must pay the claimant £1,384.65 gross.

3. The complaint in respect of holiday pay is well-founded. The respondent has failed to pay the claimant's accrued but untaken annual leave entitlement on termination of employment and must pay the claimant £680.02.

4. The respondent must pay the claimant £2,064.67 in total.

5. The claimant will be responsible for paying any tax liabilities arising out of the gross award as the respondent has been ordered to pay the outstanding amount without deductions, i.e. tax is not deducted from source.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990
ARTICLE 12

Case number: 6029825/2025

Name of case: G Smith v Philip James Kennedy Ltd

Interest is payable when an Employment Tribunal makes an award or determination requiring one party to proceedings to pay a sum of money to another party, apart from sums representing costs or expenses.

No interest is payable if the sum is paid in full within 14 days after the date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties. The date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties is called the relevant decision day.

Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day. That is called the calculation day.

The rate of interest payable is the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as the stipulated rate of interest.

The Secretary of the Tribunal is required to give you notice of the relevant decision day, the calculation day, and the stipulated rate of interest in your case. They are as follows:

the relevant decision day in this case is: 26 October 2026

the calculation day in this case is: 27 October 2026

the stipulated rate of interest is: 8% per annum.

For the Employment Tribunal Office

Because the above decision was made by a Legal Officer, the claimant(s) or respondent(s) may, pursuant to rule 7 of the Employment Tribunal Procedure Rules 2024, apply in writing to the Tribunal within 14 days for it to be considered afresh by a Judge.
