Dear Sir or Madam,

I have been a resident in [redacted] all my life and have watched the town grow.

Bicester town has its good and bad points, but I can think of nothing worse than introducing any number of people that dont share our values, respect our culture, bring their way of life to the town and country, and that are illegal in the first place.

I am referring to the illegal immigrants camp at Piddington that is being proposed.

We've seen it everywhere, predators hanging around parks, women and children feeling unsafe, men having to highten their sence of aggression for protection. These illegals do not belong here, after travelling through multiple safe countries to get here, paying gangs to cross the channel, these people are not refugees in desperate, they are here to suck the system dry, cause trouble and conflict, and put extra strain on this once great town and country.

I wish that these people are not located at Piddington, or anywhere else in this country for that matter, so my daughter can safely play outside on her own and with friends, with no worries or concerns that these people have free range of travel in the area. Man, woman, or child, these illegal people bring their mindset and way of life to the UK that is disruptive, and they have no intention or adapting to fit in, unlike many other legal migrants that fit in and adapt to the UK but also bring and maintain their culture, which is absorbed in to the UK community, and is only a good thing.

The people of Bicester and Piddington do not want these illegals in the town, they should even be here in the first place.

Kind regards
