Dear Secretary of State,

I am writing to object to planning application PCU/RARE/C3105/3378843, the proposed 1,256-person asylum accommodation centre at Site A, MOD Bicester, Bicester Garrison, Launton Road, Oxfordshire, OX25 1AE.

I find it difficult to believe that anyone should think that housing more than 1,200 single men in a small community of just a few hundred people is a good idea. I understand that many of these men arrived in the UK via illegal and unsafe forms of transport, leading me to believe that, whilst some of them may be genuine asylum seekers taking drastic action, some of them could simply be criminals escaping justice in their countries of origin.

How can we be sure of their standing when they have chosen to come to the UK via illegal means? And have they all been thoroughly vetted? Such overwhelming concentrations of single unvetted men stuck miles from the nearest town with nothing to do for days on end belies common sense and is just asking for trouble.

I am not a Piddington resident – I live in nearby [redacted] - but I care deeply that democracy should prevail in this matter and the wishes of the good people of Piddington should not be ignored.

I certainly wouldn't like my daughters to live in an area where that are outnumbered by unvetted single men with a background in illegal risk-taking. I have no objections to small numbers of family groups being housed amongst our own citizens. I have supported fund-raising events for asylum families in the past few years, but this plan is – as Piddington's residents say – the wrong plan and the wrong site.

Best regards,
