Maintenance Gear Cycle Data Capture – MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV)

1. General. MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) is to be used to record Maintenance Gear Cycles whilst providing accurate data when conducting component life management of the Aircraft.

2. Insertion and Removal of MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV). A new MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) is to be used for each month or when the current month's one is complete. MOD Forms 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) are to be inserted and removed from the MOD Form 700C iaw instructions for controlled forms on MOD Form 799/1 by authorised personnel. At the start of each month or completion of a MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV), a new MOD Form is to be inserted and recorded in the MOD Form 713 with the number being sequential from 001 to 999. Insert the Aircraft Serial Number, current month, and sheet number on the new MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) and ensure accurate transfer of 'C/F Total' Data from the previous form to the new MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV), inserting this in the 'B/F Total' Boxes for the relevant action.

3. Responsibilities. MOD Forms 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) are to be completed as follows: Maintenance Gear Cycles. Whenever Maintenance Gear Cycles are completed, enter the date in the next available 'Date' Box and the number of cycles undertaken in the next available space for the action undertaken (for individual cycles, 'Cycles Nose' - nose only, 'Cycles Left' - left main only, 'Cyles Right' - right main only, or 'Cycles Full' - all three, nose, left & right), then add this number to the respective 'Total' Column (any unused totals for that date entry are carried forward from the previous total), strike through any unused boxes for that date entry.

4. Completion of a Column. If during the month any of the columns are completed, transfer all current totals to their respective 'C/F Total' Boxes, striking through any unused boxes and raise a new MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) as per Paragraph 2.

5. Retention. MOD Form 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) is a controlled form with a Retention Category B. MOD Forms 726(Protector RG-1)(AV) are to be retained iaw retention instructions for forms with Retention Category 'B' in MAM-D.
