Proactive and preventative

Young people should be able to access help based on their needs, not just a clinical label.

Make support easier to access

Digital mental health support should make care easier to access, navigate and manage.

Support closer to young people

Access to mental health support should be improved for young people in schools, colleges and communities.