Proactive support

Where young people can work, they should be supported to do so. Where they cannot, they should receive the support and security they need.

A youth-focused system

Young people need a welfare system that recognises their distinct circumstances and responds to their particular needs.

Youth opportunities

Support should adapt around the individual as circumstances and needs change, through a Youth Opportunity Service.