Report on the use of closed material procedure

Section 12(1) of the Justice and Security Act 2013 ('the Act') requires the Secretary of State to prepare (and lay before Parliament) a report on the use of the closed material procedure (CMP) under the Act. Under section 12(4) of the Act, the report must be prepared and laid before Parliament as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the twelve-month period to which the report relates.

The report provides the number of applications, declarations, revocations and final judgments, in accordance with section 12(2) of the Act.

The table titled 'Additional information' is provided in response to recommendation 1 of Sir Duncan Ouseley's 2022 independent report on the operation of CMP under the Justice and Security Act 2013 (the Ouseley Report).[1] This table provides information on CMP cases under the Act that were open for all or part of the reporting period. This information is provided at the discretion of the Secretary of State under section 12(3) of the Act.

The Ouseley Report also recommended that the availability of DV-cleared staff in the court system to support CMP cases should also be addressed in the annual reports. HM Courts and Tribunals Service (HMCTS) and Northern Ireland Courts and Tribunals Service (NICTS) confirm that, with the existing level of DV-cleared court staff, the demands within court operations have successfully been met.

This is the thirteenth annual report on this subject and covers the period from 25 June 2025 to 24 June 2026.

The information contained within this report is provided to the best of the case holders' ability.
